

Output Destination: External Output

The general properties available for all outputs are described in the Output Properties topic.

External Output Name – the name of the External Output. Used when invoking an DFC as sub-DFC in order to return values to the invoking DFC.