

Step Navigation User Interface Overview

Step navigation view presents the order of the steps execution inside the DFC. On the diagram, you can first define the steps, and then the navigation between them. By selecting the elements on the diagram, you can also change their properties.

For all available shortcuts, see keyboard shortcuts for step navigation.